Section 3.01 Number of Directors. The business of the Association shall be managed by an initial Board of Directors comprised of not less than two (2) persons nor more than seven (7) persons, none of whom shall be required to be a Member of the Association. The number of Directors stated above may be increased or decreased by amendment of these By-Laws, provided that at no time shall said number of Directors be less than two (2). The number of Directors from time to time may vary within the range stated above, as may be elected as provided herein.

Section 3.02 Elections—Term of Office. The initial Directors shall serve a term of one (1) year and/or until the next election of Directors. As long as the Class B Member is entitled to vote, if a Director resigns or is no longer in office, the Class B Member shall elect a replacement. Each Director so elected shall hold office for the term elected and until his/her successor is elected and qualified.

Once the Class A Members are entitled to vote, election to the Board of Directors shall be by secret written ballot. At such election, the Members, or their proxy, may cast, in respect to each vacancy, as many votes as they are entitled to exercise by reason of their being a Member of the Association. The person(s) receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected. Cumulative voting shall be required as provided in Section 2.18, above.

Section 3.03 Nominations. Once the Class A Members are entitled to vote, Nominations for election to the Board of Directors shall be made by a Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made from the floor at the annual meeting. The Nomination Committee shall consist of a Chairman who shall be a member of the Board of Directors, and two (2) or more Members of the Association. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors prior to each annual meeting of the Members to serve from the close of such annual meeting until the date of the next annual meeting and such appointment shall be announced at each annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall make as many nominations for election to the Board of Directors as it shall, in its discretion determine, but not less than the number of vacancies that are to be filled. Such nominations may be made from among Members or non-members.

Section 3.04 Vacancies. Vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist upon the death, actual or constructive resignation, or removal from office of a Director, or if the Members increase the number of Directors and fail to elect the full number of authorized Directors.

Vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be filled by a majority of the remaining Directors, and such elected Director shall hold office until his/her successor is elected and qualified by the Member(s) entitled to so elect. The Members may elect his/her successor at their next annual meeting or at any special meeting thereof duly called for that purpose and held prior to the annual meeting and may do so at the meeting at which the By-Laws are amended authorizing the increase in the number of Directors. No reduction of the number of Directors shall have the effect of removing any Director prior to the expiration of his/her term of office.

Section 3.05 Meetings.

- (a) Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at least quarterly, or at such other intervals as may be decided by the Board of Directors from time-to-time, without notice, at the time and place as shall be designated by resolution of that Board or by written consent of a majority of the members of the Board.
- (b) Within ten (10) days following each annual meeting of Members of the Association, the Board of Directors may hold a regular meeting for the purpose of organization, election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. No formal notice of such meeting need be given.

- (c) Special meetings of the Board of Directors of the Association may be called for any purpose at any time by the President or by the Vice-President or by any two (2) Directors.
- (d) Notice of any special meeting shall be given at least three (3) days prior to the time set for such meeting by written notice delivered personally or mailed to each Director at his/her business address or by telegram. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If notice be given by telegram, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the notice is delivered to the telegraph company. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a Director to a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of the business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting of the Board of Directors need not be given to absent Directors if the time and place be fixed at the meeting adjourned.

Section 3.06 Quorum. A majority of the duly elected and qualified Directors comprising the Board of Directors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Board of Directors for the transaction of business, except to adjourn as hereinafter provided, and the actions and decisions of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act or acts of the Board of Directors. Provided, however, that if all of the Directors shall approve the proceedings of a meeting of the Board of Directors by execution of that approval on the minutes or other records of the meeting, such meeting shall be legal regardless of the manner in which it was called, or the number of Directors present.

Section 3.07 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if, prior to such action, a written consent thereto is signed by all members of the Board or of such committee, as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board or committee.

Section 3.08 Adjournment. A quorum of the Directors may adjourn any meeting of the Board of Directors to meet again at a stated day and hour; provided that in the absence of a quorum, a majority of the Directors present at the meeting, either general or special, may adjourn from time to time until a quorum shall be present and prior to the time fixed for the next regular meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 3.09 Compensation. Directors shall not receive any salary or other compensation for their services as Directors but, by resolution of the Board, the expenses incurred in the performance of their duties may be allowed. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Director from serving the Association in any other capacity as an officer, agent, employee or otherwise and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.10 Removal. A member of the Board of Directors, or the entire Board of Directors, may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of a majority of the Members then entitled to vote at any election of Directors. If less than the entire Board is to be removed, no Director may be removed if the votes cast against his/her removal would be sufficient to elect him/her if then cumulatively voted on at an election of the entire Board of Directors. The removal of a Director, or the entire Board of Directors, in the manner prescribed in this Section may occur at any special meeting of the Members called for that purpose.

Section 3.11 Presumption of Assent. A Director of the Association who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any Association matters is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his/her dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he/she shall file his/her written dissent to such action with the person acting as secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the Secretary of the Association immediately after the adjournment of the meeting.
